

SAP INHOUSE CONSULTANT WITH PROJECT RESPONSIBILITY (M/F/D)

In order to ensure our continuous growth and to drive it by providing an adequate infrastructure, the TGW Group runs a global ERP project. The goal is to integrate all 17 international units into this system upgrade. The implementation of our new SAP software world, S4 Hana, is particularly emphasised.

As SAP In-House Consultant, you will be the central international contact in your field of expertise (EWM, SD, QM oder MM) and are responsible the entire process – from analysing the existing processes and structures to the final international rollouts – as subproject manager.

WHAT YOU'LL BE HANDLING

- Analysis, optimisation and documentation of business processes and implementation and development of IT-related processes and organisational structures
- Responsibility for subsections of national and international projects after an intensive training phase
- Professional collection and evaluation of occurring incidents, definition and implementation of appropriate measures
- SAP customising and responsibility for selected modules in coordination with the suppliers
- Comprehensive user support (2nd level support)
- Group-wide point of contact between IT and other departments

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Completed IT education (University/University of Applied Sciences or Higher Technical College specialised in Informatics, Organisational Development or similar)
- At least 5 years of SAP experience in consulting, project management, implementation and/or module support (preferably EWM, SD, QM oder MM)
- Good customizing skills and basic ABAP programming knowledge
- Willingness to travel abroad (up to 20% of working time) during the further rollout
- Very good command of German and English
- Motivated and committed personality with an analytical way of thinking as well as highly developed communication skills, self-confident manner and persuasiveness

WHAT YOU'LL RECEIVE

The minimum annual gross pay for this position is approx. 68,000 Euros. The actual pay depends on your individual job experience and qualification.

Support us in further developing our processes and implementing a new ERP system within the group. Contribute your ideas and shape the future of TGW with us.

You can expect responsible tasks in an international corporate environment. Become part of an ambitious company, and take the next step in your career
